Restaurant A

Fantastic food and wine. Great place for a date as it is super cute inside.

* Perfect for a romantic date. Is in a very cool and cute place. We got the gnocchi

Our worst dining experience on our entire trip. The prices here are high and the food is not anything above edible with meathalls which was so delicious

Restaurant B

 Overall the ambiance was chic, though the music was blasting. Too loud for a date but great for a night out Gotta try.

My review is based on attending a birthday party ... friendly bar tenders, helpful wait staff and average bar food.

* Food is immaculate but that's not the only thing that is spectacular about this place...
